

Gregg Kanagy is a 1985 graduate of BMS. He earned a B.S. in Physical Education with teaching certifications in Emotionally Handicapped and Mentally Handicapped from Eastern Mennonite University. In 1995, Gregg graduated with a Masters of Education from Elmira College, Elmira, New York.

From 1990 to 2000, Gregg served at the Fair Play Wilderness Boys Camp in Westminster, SC. Roles during his time there included group counselor, group work supervisor, educational coordinator, and program director. He's always had a heart for youth.

Gregg was employed as an ordained pastor in the role of Pastor of Care at Locust Grove Mennonite Church, Belleville, PA where he served from December of 2000 to June of 2009. Prior to implementing small group ministry, men's ministry, and children's ministry in the Pastor of Care ministry position at Locust Grove, Gregg developed the Youth Ministry programs at the church with a clear emphasis on service to others. Gregg also served as the boys' soccer coach at the Lewistown Area High School from 2001-2009.

Gregg, along with his wife Sharon and their two daughters, moved to Gator Wilderness Camp School in June of 2009. In the ten years since re-opening Gator Wilderness Boys Camp School, multiple BMS alumni have served as long-term volunteers at the school. These alumni include Stuart Suydam, Jeremy Peachey, Nick Peachey, Mikaela Peachey, Mitchell Kurtz, Tyler Yoder, Seth Brubaker, Sam Kauffman, Evan Peachey, and Quill and Ann Kanagy. BMS alumni ministering there at the present time include Gregg Kanagy, Camp Director, Curtis Kauffman, Lead Supervisor, Hannah Peachey, Administrative Assistant, and Eric Kauffman, Maintenance. More than 170 boys have been ministered to at Gator Camp since 2009, and it may be safe to say that Gator Wilderness Boys Camp School has one of the highest records of BMS alumni serving its mission since its onset. Gregg and Sharon and staff give God all the glory for the incredible work He is doing through the work there and invite you to keep the staff and boys there in your prayers. Also, if you are visiting Florida, you will want to include Gator Wilderness Camp School, Punta Gorda, FL in your itinerary.
